Just one week away! We look forward to seeing you!

A great turn out! Eagle Chapter's Vietnam War Memorial Wall Wash April 30

Wow, what a turn out!!! This past Saturday, April 30, we had our first chapter wall wash at the Vietnam War Veterans Memorial in Washington DC.

We had about 80 estimated to attend and we had that and more. Plus Chief (Ret) Gary Jones who drove up from Charleston South Carolina. Oh and thanks to our Boy Scouts - Bob you know how great it is to have them. When I get around to it, I'll place this image on our website where the attendees will be more visible.

There was just one issue - we could not wash the wall! Eight more names were being inscribed on the memorial and we were asked to wash the Korean War Memorial instead so that the inscribers could continue with their work. No problem, we were already up anyway. So while we were taking photos, the ranger returned from the Korean War Memorial to tell us that there was no water.

My regrets to all attendees! It turned out to be a great day to go to the National Zoo and see Bao Bao and her new little sister, Bay Bay the new baby Panda.

The National Park Service has ensure me that they will take our concerns up to management. So by our next wash, they'll have this sorted out.

A final reminder and invitation - next Thursday, May 12 at 1130AM - Champps - General Jamerson. Please RSVP if you plan to attend.

Thanks.

Very best regards,

Lee
