Colonel Erik K. Rundquist

Colonel Rundquist is Chief of Security Forces, Headquarters, Air Combat Command. In this position, he is responsible for security, law enforcement, antiterrorism, force protection and integrated defense across the MAJCOM. Additionally, he is responsible for organizing, training, equipping, and maintaining combat-ready Security Forces units for rapid deployment and employment in support of 1,200 aircraft, 24 wings, 14 bases, and over 200 operating locations worldwide protecting 105,000 active-duty and civilian personnel. Air Combat Command Security Forces include 4,800 Defenders serving in 2 Groups and 18 Squadrons.

Colonel Rundquist was born at Whiteman Air Force Base, Missouri and received a regular commission upon graduation from the United States Air Force Academy in May 1991. He has served in various duty positions to include group commander, squadron commander, MAJCOM division chief, joint staff officer, operations officer, and ground combat instructor. He has deployed on several contingencies to include supporting the United Nations Protection Force in the Balkans, Operations ALLIED FORCE and SHINING HOPE in Albania and Kosovo, DETERMINED RESPONSE (USS Cole) in Yemen, ENDURING FREEDOM in Kyrgyzstan and Afghanistan, and IRAQI FREEDOM where he conducted an operational combat jump into Bashur, Iraq with the 173rd Airborne Brigade. He commanded security forces at Tallil, Iraq, was the J7 for the Combined Joint Special Operations Air Component Command at Balad, Iraq, and commanded the 455th Expeditionary Mission Support Group and Joint Task Force 1/455 at Bagram, Afghanistan.

Colonel Rundquist is a rated military parachutist and is a graduate of the United States Army Infantry Mortar Leader's Course and the Air Assault School. He maintains active status as an External Fellow to Boston University's International History Institute. Colonel Rundquist is married to the former Heidi Suzanne Almas of Saline, Michigan. They have two children, Andrew, 15 and Aubrey, 12.

Creed of an Air Force Security Force Member
I am a security force member. I hold allegiance to my country, devotion to duty, and personal integrity above all. I wear my shield of authority with dignity and restraint, and promote by example high standards of conduct, appearance, courtesy, and performance. I seek no favor because of my position. I perform my duties in a firm, courteous, and impartial manner, irrespective of a person's color, race, religion, national origin, or sex. I strive to merit the respect of my fellow airmen and all with whom I come in contact.

Staff Sgt Dontarie R. Russ

Sergeant Russ is assigned to the 2d Heavy Brigade Combat Team, 2d Infantry Division, Combined Task Force 1-23. He was deployed from the 633 SFS Joint Base Langley-Eustis. He was deployed 30 May 2012 to 15 October 2012.

During his assignment, Sergeant Russ conducted counter improvised explosive operations near Forward Operating Base Masum Ghar as a Patrol Explosive Detection Dog Handler. Staff Sgt Russ along with MWD Uudensi/N490 secured a 17,400 square mile area of responsibility by leading 17 outside-the-wire patrols and 750 hours of explosive detection. He also advised command elements of identified improvised explosive device indicators, as well as actual devices.
